the return of the native series : Turkish Knights

"here come I, a Turkish Knight who learnt in Turkish land to fight"

the central theme of Thomas Hardy's novel "the return of the native" is fatalistic, presenting the timelessness, forces, and indifference of nature as compared to the ups and downs of transient human lives and experiences.

"timeless cut pieces meets with glue for creating a new reality..."

most commonly people create collages to fulfill their need of self actualization... the faith that lies beneath the action of cutting their desires holds an immense value... the value of belief...

as the most intelligence being on earth, deep down we all know that we are able to create our own realities... myth of the collage art is hidden here; the firework that this thought holds within... the possibility that creating a time gap for the viewer to be born into a new reality...
